THE ART OF DEMOCRACY

ARTIST & COLLECTOR GUIDE

October 29, 2026 | Horizon on Sunset | Houston, Texas

A gathering of contemporary artists exploring Black identity, cultural memory, freedom and personal expression. Discover the work and connect directly with the artists to inquire about available pieces and commissions.

MATHIEU JN BAPTISTE

Goku (2026)

A vivid image of childhood and imagination, where expressive color evokes the freedom to envision new possibilities.

SCAN TO CONNECT

@mathieuartsoul

ANTHONY SUBER

Stars and Strifes (No. 2) (2025)

Through layered symbolism and historical references, Suber explores Black identity, ancestral memory and resilience.

SCAN TO CONNECT

@suberanthony

MARC NEWSOME

Two photographs of Third Ward

I Love 3rd Ward House and Frenchy's at Night preserve familiar Houston places and the cultural memory of a community.

SCAN TO CONNECT

@marcfuri

TORREY LÉGER

Four featured paintings

Buffalo Soldier and Colored Girl examine Black identity and citizenship; the paired Last Breath paintings confront the Middle Passage.

SCAN TO CONNECT

@txhaitianartist

OFILI

Thank God I Don't Look Like What I've Been Through

Expressive portraits celebrate the individuality, beauty and resilience of Black women, and the histories beyond what is visible.

SCAN TO CONNECT

@ofilidesigns

MIKE WILL PAINTED IT

The Shape of Sound

Vinyl records become symbols of memory, identity and possibility in paintings exploring the influence of Black music.

SCAN TO CONNECT

@mikwill92

JALYESA BOUTTE

Simple Choices

Acrylic and a working clock explore how time, relationships and personal decisions shape growth and self-understanding.

SCAN TO CONNECT

@ramajay_artistry

CHRISTINE | LIVE ARTIST

Live mural activation & auction

Christine creates an original work during the event; the completed painting will be offered at auction.

SCAN TO CONNECT

@ccthecurator

Interested in a work? Scan an artist's code to explore their practice and inquire directly.